

The FCC should reject 04-160. Satellite radio is a legitimate alternative to terrestrial broadcasters and should not be restricted by anti-competitive rules sponsored by the NAB. I am a satellite radio subscriber (XM) and find the variety of programming unique and valuable. The NAB's petition is a transparent attempt to bypass the marketplace and cripple a competitor. Satellite radio operators and subscribers should be free to decide what content satellite radio delivers.